

THE VISEGRAD SUMMER SCHOOL
VILLA DECIUS IN KRAKOW
19th July – 3rd August 2002

PROGRAMME

Friday, 19th July

08.00 – 18.00

Arrival and signing in

19.00

Meeting with the participants to discuss organisation of the Visegrad Summer School

Saturday, 20th July

10.15

Welcoming address

Prof. Jacek Woźniakowski, Chairman of the Villa Decius Association Barbara Labuda, Secretary of State, Chancellery of the President of
The Polish Republic

Prof. Andrzej Gołaś, Mayor of the City of Krakow

10.30

Visegrad Group 1991 – 2002. Experiences of the Past Decade and Today's Form of Co-operation – Magdaléna Vášáryová, Ambassador of The Republic of Slovakia, Bedřich Kopecký, Ambassador of The Czech Republic, Tamás Katona, Ambassador of The Republic of Hungary in Poland – inauguration forum and discussion, moderation: Katarzyna Sobolewska-Myślik, Pedagogical University, Kraków

12.30

Lunch in the Villa Decius Restaurant

15.30

Integration workshops for the participants – Joanna Heidtman, social psychologist, Jagellonian University, Kraków

Sunday, 21st July

10.00 – 12.00

Kraków – Witness and Participant of European Culture – Guided sightseeing tour of Kraków

12.00

Role of the Metropolis in Creating European Identity - discussion with dr Tadeusz Syryjczyk and dr Krzysztof Görlich, Krzysztofory, ul. Szczepańska 2

16.00

“Rozstaje” (“Crossroads”) Festival – programme prepared by Hungarian Centre in Krakow

Monday, 22nd July

9.30 – 11.00

Cultural Standards. Stereotypes and Common Ideas of the Nations and Ethnic Groups.

Workshops: Michal Vašečka, Institute for Public Affairs, Bratislava

11.30 – 13.00

Central European Perspectives in Enlarged European Union –

Interactive lecture – Dr Emil Brix : Ministry for Foreign Affairs, Austria

15.00 – 16.30

East -Central Europe. Between The East and The West. Selected Political and Security Issues – Interactive lecture: Prof. Andrzej Kapiszewski, Andrzej Frycz Modrzewski Kraków College, Kraków

16.45 – 18.15

Slovakia's Return to the Path of Transformation Typical for V4 Countries. Perspectives of V4 Countries – Interactive lecture: Grigorij Mesežnikov, Institute for Public Affairs, Bratislava

Tuesday, 23rd July

9.30 – 11.00

Visegrad Group Countries in Face of the European Union. Main Political, Legal and Economical Issues. Range of Support for the

- Integration Process in each Country - Interactive lecture: Olga Gyarfasova, Institute for Public Affairs, Bratislava 11.30. – 13.00
Range of Social Support for the Process of European Integration
 Workshops: dr Marek Simlat, Academy of Pedagogy, Kraków
- 18.00
 Film: “The Garden”, Slovakia, director: Martin Šulík followed by a discussion in the “Kawiarnia Filmowa”,
 ul. Św. Gertrudy 5, Kraków
- Wednesday, 24th July
 9.30 – 11.00
Models of Cultural Policies. Role of Culture and Education in Social Policies of the Visegrad Countries - Interactive lecture:
 Małgorzata Sternal, Jagellonian University, Kraków
- 11.30 – 13.00
Rural development and eastern enlargement – interactive lecture:
 Gusztáv Nemes, ELTE University, Budapest
- 15.00 – 16.30
Cultural Creation of European Identity – Interactive lecture with discussion, Prof. Zdzisław Mach, Jagellonian University, Kraków
- Thursday, 25th July
 9.00 – 11.30
Ecological Threats of Central Europe. Prospects of Co-operation between the Visegrad Group Countries in the Area of Environmental Protection - Workshops: Michal Kravčík, Association „Ľudia a voda” („People and water”), Slovakia; Viktor Trebický, Institute for Environmental Policy, Prague
- 11.30 – 13.00
Current situation of Co-operation within the Visegrad Group, as seen by Czech Republic. Future Perspectives – Interactive lecture:
 Martin Svárovský, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Czech Republic
- 18.00
 Film: “Chico” (Hungary), director: Ibolya Fekete followed by discussion in the “Kawiarnia Filmowa”
 ul. Św. Gertrudy 5, Kraków
- Friday, 26th July
 10.00 – 11.30
Economic Systems of the Visegrad Group Countries as seen in the Perspective of European Integration and in the Age of Globalisation. Challenges and Key Success Factors.
 – Interactive lecture: Dr Jacek Klich, Jagellonian University, Kraków
- 11.30 – 13.00
The Victory of the Supermarkets? – readings from A Strong Sense of Purity, a book by Michal Hvorecky and discussion with the author
- 15.00 – 18.00
Advertising in Central Europe. Presentation of Czech, Slovak, Hungarian, and Polish Commercial Films
 – discussion: Joanna Heidtman
- Saturday – Sunday
27th-28th July
 Trip to Niedzica and Czerwony Klasztor (Slovakia) – separate programme
- Monday, 29th July
 10.00 – 12.00
Perspectives of and Barriers to Economic Co-operation of the Visegrad Countries, with Special Attention to the Functioning of the CEFTA Agreement - Interactive lecture: András Bakács, Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Hungary

18.00

Overcoming the Myths of Central Europe in Literature

Panel discussion with writers: Pályi András (Hungary), Jurij Andruchowycz (Ukraine), Jiří Hájiček (Czech Republic), Michal Hvorecky (Slovakia), Andrzej Stasiuk (Poland).

Moderation: Krzysztof Czyżewski, Foundation “Pogranicze”, Sejny, Poland

Tuesday, 30th July

9.30 – 11.00

Architecture of European Security in the Perspective of the

Visegrad Group Countries - Interactive lecture: dr Leszek Porębski, Stanislaw Staszic University of Mining and Metallurgy, Kraków

11.00 – 13.00

Communist Legacy and Democratization. Elites and Transition in the Czech Republic, Slovakia, Hungary and Poland – Interactive lecture: Prof. Jacek Wasilewski, Jagiellonian University, Kraków

18.00

Film: “The Past” (Czech Republic), director: Ivo Trajkov, followed by a discussion, “Kawiarnia Filmowa”, ul. Św. Gertrudy 5,

Kraków

Wednesday, 31st July

9.30 – 11.00

Is the Visegrad Social Model a Success Story? Post-Socialist

Inequalities, Fairness and Distribution Strategies – Interactive lecture, Tamás Pál, Hungarian Academy of Science, Budapest

19.00

Salon of „Polityka” – meeting with Leszek Balcerowicz, President of the National Bank of Poland, former Deputy Prime Minister of Poland; moderation: Janina Paradowska, “Polityka”
Club “Pod Jaszczurami”, Rynek Główny 8, Kraków

Thursday, 1st August

11.30 – 13.00

Politics and Antipolitics in Recent Central Europe – Interactive

lecture: Attila Károly Molnár, University of Laránd Eötvös, Budapest

18.00

Film: “A Week in the Life of a Man” (Poland), director: Jerzy Stuhr
followed by a discussion with Jerzy Stuhr in the “Kawiarnia Filmowa”, ul. Św. Gertrudy 5, Kraków

Friday, 2nd August

10.00 – 12.00

Propaganda or Promotion. Creating a positive view of the “Neighbour” in international and social relations. Role and Meaning of Media – discussion with Czech, Slovak, Hungarian and Polish experts taking part in the Visegrad Summer School, and invited journalists

12.30

Concluding session and discussion: Marek Jeziorski, The Director of the European Department

Presentation of Visegrad Summer School Diplomas

14.00

Farewell lunch